Assignment 1.

1. what is HTML

It is a standard language used to make webpages. It is not a programming language but it is a markup language used to create the content of webpages.

2. what is a Website ?

website is a collection of webpages. It has two types

* static website [No interaction]
* Dynamic website [interaction]

3. what is a Webpage

It is a collection of codes

* static webpages [HTML, CSS, bootstrap, tailwind]
* Dynamic webpages [HTML, CSS, bootstrap, tailwind javascript]

4. Extension

It is a part of file name. It specifies the type of data present in the file. So that the system decides the required software to open it.

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

5. HTML - Hyper Text Markup Language

Hyper text - Text which linked to other webpages using links

Markup - It is a tag which defines the element

Different kind of tags used to create different kind of structures required by the used.

Tags make the structure understandable by the browser.

Language Codes and Instructions